Sweepstakes Trophy Won by Delta Gamma

By KATHY NORRIS

Civic Auditorium echoed with screams of happiness by Delta Gamma sorority members when they were presented with the Sweepstakes trophy for their performance in the 13th annual All-Greek benefit show Saturday night.

Bright pink and orange costumes, dancing and lively songs comprised the Delta Gammas' act, "Blondes Prefer Gentlemen."

First place sorority division trophy was awarded to Chi Omegas for their act entitled "Annie Get Your Education," while Kappa Alpha Theta claimed second place for its rendition of "The Prize." Alpha Tau Omega won first place in the fraternity division for its performance, "The Blind Date—A Musical Satire," and Pi Kappa Alpha won second place for its act, "Homecoming King."

Delta Zeta sorority and Sigma Alpha Mu fraternity won third place positions.

Acts were judged on the basis of originality, preparation and presentation. Judges were Thomas Eagan, professor of music; Howard Miller, assistant professor of music; and Richard Elliott, assistant professor of drama.

Group Begins Academic Freedom Study

The area of academic freedom, including pontical practices of SJS students, is now under study by Student Council's External Policy Committee.

The committee hopes to formulate an ASB guideline for academic freedom in the areas of student-faculty relationships and freedom of campus organizations.

Student Council must consider any recommendations the committee might make before they can become official ASB policy.

"We're educating ourselves now on the subject and it may take some time before we make definite proposals," Marty Stenrud, committee chairman and junior representative, said yesterday.

Basic purpose behind the study, he explained, is "to find out just where the lines of authority lie."

"How much freedom should the college give an organization in advocating ideas?" is one of the biggest questions facing the committee, he noted.

Student participation in off-campus political activities is another area of concern to the representatives.

"Should the college or student body discipline students taking part in off-campus activity?" he asked.

Another specific area of investigation, he said, is the right of off-campus publications, such as the "Campus Voice," to be sold on campus.

Pierce To Discuss Growth Problems

Automation and population growth problems will be discussed by Jack Pierce, assistant professor of sociology, tomorrow morning at 10:30 in Concert Hall.

Speaking "Unthinkable Thoughts on Automation and Population," Pierce will "discuss the necessity for social change that the consequences of population growth and automation impose."

He will review "two views of history and the historical process (Marx and Toynbee) and how these views may be applied to the dilemma confronting our society."

The lecture will be sponsored by the College Lecture Committee, the Sociology and Anthropology Department and the ASB.

Arson Cause Of Fires, Official Says

For the second time in a little over a month, arson is the suspected cause of fire in the same apartment house under construction in the college area.

A fire was spotted early Monday morning in the soon-to-be-completed Kennedy Hall, 555 S. 10th St. First fire was on Oct. 27.

San Jose fire units responded to the alarm. During the ensuing fire fighting involving 20 firemen, fire Captain Franklin Jost received a shoulder injury and was taken to San Jose Hospital.

Damage to the building was estimated at $40-$50,000 by Kenneth Gordon, co-owner of Spartan Rentals.

DAMAGE

Two back-to-back bathrooms were destroyed, and there was extensive damage to the rest of the first floor apartment where the fire started.

Apartments above and next to the destroyed apartment also were damaged.

According to Fire Inspector Michael Devitt, the fire started in the wall of the first floor apartment and smoldered for several hours before it was noticed by a neighbor shortly after midnight.

Jost was injured when he fell through the burned-through floor. He managed to catch himself before falling all the way through. He is listed in good condition.

ARSON SQUAD

The arson squad of San Jose Fire Department is investigating the fire. The Oct. 27 blaze did $3,000 damage. The earlier fire also is suspected as arson.

Both fires were clearly cases of arson, according to Inspector Devitt.

According to Gordon, the fire will not postpone the opening of the new building. He said there will be extra work done on the destroyed apartments.

Markham Plans 'Abolition' Debate

The FBI film, "Operation Abolition" will be shown tonight at 7:30 in the Markham Hall recreation room.

The film, sponsored by the Markham Hall Cultural Committee and Young Americans for Freedom (YAF), tells the story of the riots in San Francisco during the House Committee on Un-American Activities meetings.

A debate will follow, with Jack Cox, regional head of the YAF, defending the production, while Tom Schmidt, SJS senior from Tarzana, heads the opposition.

AFTERMATH OF UNIVERSITY DEMONSTRATION—This was the debris left on the second floor of the University of California administration building on the Berkeley campus after helmeted police broke up a 12-hour sit-in by

"free speech" demonstrators. Some 801 were arrested. The demonstration followed a two-month dispute between school officials and leaders of the Free Speech Movement over promotion of off-campus political causes.

Pastor Says 'Sex Crisis In Society'

By AL MASON

"We are by all odds the most educated victims of sexual crisis in history," Dr. Lloyd James Averill, vice president of Kalamazoo College, Mich., told an audience of approximately 125 persons in Concert Hall yesterday morning.

Speaking on "Sexuality in Crisis" as a guest of the College Lecture Committee and the Sociology and Anthropology Department, Dr. Averill noted the wide discussion of sex in publications and speeches today.

"Churches, schools and youth clubs are all aware of their roles in the sex education of a child," said Dr. Averill, an ordained Baptist minister with an M.A. degree in sociology.

Ignorance about sex is no longer the problem, Dr. Averill said. "It isn't our information that's defective, it's our relationships," he explained.

According to Dr. Averill, the problem begins in inter-family relationships where the father is removed from his son and the son grows up without a male image with which to identify himself.

Seeking his sexual identity, "the adolescent attempts to establish his identity as a man by imitating imitation men," in other words, members of his adolescent peer group, Dr. Averill reasoned.

Adequate sexual identity depends upon adequate relationships to members of both sexes during childhood, asserted Dr. Averill.

Truck Problems To Be Discussed

The SJS student section of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers is presenting speaker James Jensen of Peterbilt Truck Co. tonight at 7:30 in ED100.

Jensen will discuss problems encountered in designing and manufacturing trucks.

This third meeting of the semester is open to all faculty and mechanical engineering students. Refreshments will be served.

Industrial Educators To Hold Workshop

The California Industrial Educational Association will hold its annual Bay Area sectional workshop at SJS on Saturday.

Principal speaker at the one-day workshop will be Ernest Kramer, director of industrial education for the State of California. Around 600 instructors are expected to attend the meetings, which will be held in Concert Hall, Spartan Cafeteria, and the Industrial Arts Building.

U.C. Free Speech Leader Rejects Kerr Peace Plan

University of California, Berkeley, department chairmen yesterday announced a five point plan which is aimed at ending 10 weeks of "free speech" demonstrations. University President Clark Kerr accepted the provisions in an "extraordinary convocation" speech before an overflow audience in the university's Greek Theater.

Even before the plan was made public, leaders of the Free Speech Movement (FSM) served notice they looked with disfavor on any solution proposed by "the part of the faculty most closely associated with the administration."

MARIO SAVIO

Mario Savio, FSM leader told newsmen, "Any solution must arise from below, from the students and faculty themselves."

Meanwhile, an unofficial faculty meeting of 200 faculty members, headed by Professor Morris W. Hirsch of the Mathematics Department, was voting to accept another set of proposals to send to the Academic Senate.

The Hirsch proposals are said to be more in line with the demands of the FSM and its supporters feel that it has the greatest chance of bringing a halt to the current crisis.

PEACE PLAN

The following provisions comprised the Kerr-Department Head proposal.

1. The university community should be governed by orderly and lawful procedures in the set-

Speech Rally

A rally in support of the Free Speech Movement at the University of California, Berkeley, is scheduled at SJS today on Seventh Street at 12 noon.

The rally is being co-sponsored by the Student Peace Union (SPU) Toward an Active Student Community (TASC), SJS Friends of SNCC (Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee), Democratic Club and the Committee for Socialist Action (CSA).

The groups, urging all students to attend, have stated, "Their fight is your fight."

tlement of campus issues and full and free pursuit of educational activities on this campus should be maintained.

2. The university community should abide by the new and liberalized political action rules and await the report of the Senate Committee on Academic Freedom.

PREVIOUS ACTS

3. The department chairmen believe that the acts of civil disobedience on Dec. 2 and 3 were unwarranted and that they obstructed rational and fair consideration of the grievances brought forward by the students.

4. The cases of all students arrested in connection with the sit-in in Sproul Hall on Dec. 2 and 3 are now before the courts and the university will accept the court's judgment in the cases as the full disciplinary action for those offenses.

In the light of the cases now and prospectively before the courts the university will not prosecute charges against any student for action prior to Dec. 2 and 3 but the university will enforce disciplinary actions for any violations henceforth.

5. All classes should be conducted as scheduled.

Local AAUP Lauds Cal Amnesty Decision

SJS chapter of the American Association of University Professors (AAUP) has approved a statement praising the action of the University of California administration granting amnesty to the arrested students. The AAUP also re-affirmed its belief in faculty responsibility for the academic freedom of students.

In the mimeographed statement put before the local members, AAUP "applauded the wisdom of the administration of the University of California at Berkeley in refraining from pressing charges against the students of the Free Speech Movement."

In addition, however, the SJS chapter quoted from the Staff Reference Book which states that "students and student organizations are free to discuss all questions of interest to them and to express opinions publicly or privately without penalty, to promote the causes they support by distributing literature, circulating petitions, picketing, or taking any peaceful action on or off campus."

They expressed their "hope that the students of the University of California at Berkeley soon will be accorded the same freedoms as those accorded the students at San Jose State."

Camp Counselor Signups To End

Signups for Spartacamp counselor interviews will end tomorrow in the College Union. Interviews will be Dec. 10-17.

A small photograph and a self-addressed stamped envelope are requested along with the application for interview. According to Eugene Archer, director of Spartacamp, the picture is not mandatory, but it will aid the committee when reviewing the applications.

The discussion at this year's camp will be the basic problems of the individual conforming to society-formed institutions. These institutions have so far been broken into five categories: education, religion, politics, sex and suburbia.

Previous campus activities are not a prerequisite for the selection of camp counselors, according to Miss Archer.

Mandel Winds Up Series on USSR

William Mandel, guest lecturer on the "Soviet Union Today," will present his last in a series of lectures today at 3:30 p.m. in S164.

The Communist Party and Soviet government will be the subjects of discussion. The series of lectures by Mandel have been sponsored by Toward an Active Student Community (TASC).

At the beginning of the series Mandel said, "The fact that I am able to give this lecture course this year reflects the commendable improvement in academic freedom at San Jose State."

Last year Mandel was not allowed to speak in favor of allowing Communist teachers in state colleges and universities unless a speaker was present to give opposing views.

TASC president Jeff Wachter has urged all interested students to attend the lecture.

Today's Weather

Fair today, little change in temperature. High, 55-60. Low, 35-45. No winds forecast. Yesterday's high was 62; low, 48.

Foreign Governments Laud California Students Abroad

State college students participating in the "International Programs" are receiving approval from the governments of foreign countries.

A total of 213 state college students are now attending classes at nine campuses in six foreign countries during the second year of the program, according to Dr. Glenn S. Dumke, chancellor of the state colleges. This is an increase of 105 students over last year.

San Jose State has 31 students in five foreign countries: France, Germany, Japan, Spain and Sweden. Fifteen of these students are graduates, and the remainder are upper division students. Both qualified in academic and linguistic proficiency by having a 3.00 or better grade point average for at least two semesters prior to being selected for over-seas study.

The ambassadors of Germany and Japan have sent their congratulations praising the state colleges for their "pioneering academic venture."

Ambassador Karl Heinrich Knap-

pstein of Germany said, "We greatly appreciate the initiative of the California state colleges to make it possible for American students to get first hand impressions of life in Germany and to meet German students."

Ambassador Ryuji Takeuchi of Japan lauded the state colleges for their effort "in establishing close and imaginative academic ties" with Waseda University in Tokyo.

"As the people of Japan and the United States begin to learn more of each other's civilization," he said, "it is particularly fitting that students on the Pacific Coast of the United States be given an opportunity to become better acquainted with Japan through students at Japanese universities."

Some students spend the first two months of the year abroad in language study followed by regular class work while others study language and literature the entire year. Students are selected for the program by faculty committees. They receive credit for the overseas courses as part of their regular state college curricula.

ASB PRESIDENT Bob Pisano (standing) explains provisions of the new state college health plan during last Friday night's Open End Forum. Also shown is treasurer Jack Perkins who told why he voted against the recent band trip to Arizona. Other council members discussed the philosophy of student government, student body elections, Prop. 13, cultural vs. athletic activities and the Greek system's relationship to Student Council.

Berkeley Demonstrations: Issues Remain Clouded

An interesting aspect to the Free Speech Movement at the University of California is the tendency of FSM leaders and sympathizers to tread on the free speech rights of others while seeking their own goals.

This aspect of the movement is particularly interesting to Spartan Daily.

When a speaker tried to present an opposing view on the Berkeley Campus last week he was shouted down.

When the San Francisco newspapers opposed the FSM movement in their editorial columns they provoked some of the FSM proponents more colorful epithets.

Some SJS sympathizers of the movement insist that Spartan Daily opposes free speech because of the decision to withhold editorial support (as well as pressure) until the smoke clears and some of the claims, allegations actions and reactions can be examined in the light of day.

To accuse a newspaper of denying its stock in trade is nothing short of ridiculous.

Journalists have a particular interest in the progress of free expression.

As students we have a further interest of the trends in academic freedom.

If it becomes clear that students at Berkeley have indeed been denied their rights and that official actions taken in the course of the controversy have been inconstant and high-handed, then Spartan Daily will take an editorial stand accordingly.

In the meantime suffice it to say that Spartan Daily is a proponent of free speech and anything that furthers the cause of free speech.

We must say further, however, that the issues surrounding the Berkeley controversy are so complex and the espoused aim of the FSM so often ignored that at the present time Spartan Daily will have to continue to investigate and analyze before it can give its wholehearted support (or censure) to the demonstrations in Berkeley.

'At Last—A Cure For Registration'

Editor:
At last, a cure for the antiquated registration headache (Prof. Malter, Daily, Dec. 4).

Pre-registration by commuters and such will save hours, thousands of hours, of faculty and student time. It also will provide time for schedule adjustments so students won't be crowded out of required classes.

Most curricula, especially underclass, are so rigid anyway that an IBM machine could make out the schedule unaided if only told how many students for each major curriculum.

Let's end long registration lines and bring our registration practices up to date.

'Look to Future Before Protesting'

Editor:
Before the youthful-minded militants at San Jose State College charge off to join the ranks of those protesting the so-called harsh treatment of students on the Berkeley campus of the University of California, let them look closely at those whom they would follow. An insight into the motives and into the real significance of the FSM in its present effort might well be gained by reading that great classic of Spain's Golden Age, "Don Quijote de la Mancha," by Cervantes.

Let them follow Don Quijote, then, if they prefer; and they will find many windmills to attack. But it may be ten or twenty years from now before they look upon these actions with some shame—or even with considerable regret.

Ideals are certainly worthy of pursuit, but how worthy the pursuit of mindmills? And windmills are not even skylarks.

Don Quijote would be a very funny fellow if he were not so pathetic. And in the end, Alonso Quijano el bueno is the hero.

'Arab Propaganda' 'Insulting' to Student

Editor:
I was present at the meeting of the International Student Organization Friday, Dec. 4. Instead of seeing a film on travel in Lebanon, as had been announced previously, I had to sit through a movie of Arab propaganda, part of which was directly aimed against Israel.

As an Israeli student at SJS, I feel I belong to the ISO as much as the Arab students do. I feel deeply hurt because at a meeting I came to enjoy, I was insulted in front of the other students present, among them African students, whom Israelis regard very highly.

I already am accustomed to Arab propaganda, and I see it as an incurable phenomenon. However, I do not think that it should receive support from the ISO, a student organization whose purpose is to promote friendship and mutual understanding.

Therefore, I ask that those responsible for the betterment of relations among international students at SJS see to it that such intentional deceit will not be allowed in the name of the ISO.

Taylor Consults With Viet Head

SAIGON (UPI)—U. S. Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor held urgent consultations yesterday with Premier Tran Van Huong on ways to win the war against the Communist Viet Cong.

Taylor returned Sunday from Washington where he consulted with President Johnson and other government officials.

There have been persistent reports the United States might bomb military targets and staging areas in North Viet Nam and the Communist supply trail through Laos but a spokesman declined to comment.

An official spokesman said Maj. Gen. Nguyen Khanh, commander of the Vietnamese armed forces, was scheduled to attend the meeting but was not sure whether he was present.

The spokesman said Taylor made no arrangements for further meetings. He declined to speculate on how long the talks between Taylor and Huong would continue or when the next talks would be held.

Spartans Victimize Vandal Basketball Last Night

By DAVE PAYNE
Daily Sports Editor

Forty minutes of wild basketball took place in Spartan Gymnasium last night with SJS taking a 77-67 win over the Idaho Vandals.

Bad passes, moving violations, and tripping and falling players were only a part of the action witnessed by a near capacity crowd.

While all this was going on, Spartan forward S. T. Saffold was leading the way with good ball handling, shooting and passes. He topped all scorers with 24 points—hitting 12 field goals in 17 attempts.

Saffold also picked off nine rebounds, led the team in assists with five, and drew no fouls.

SJS coach Stu Inman thought the Spartans played a good game.

"A team that plays like Idaho causes chaos," he said.

Pete Newell and John Carmichael scored 12 points apiece to help the SJS cause.

Tom Moreland and Jerry Skaife scored 16 and 17 points, respectively, for the losers.

The Spartans led at halftime, 42-37.

Chuck Hepworth hit the visitors' first two field goals, giving them a 4-0 lead. Idaho extended the lead to 9-4, its biggest advantage of the night.

SJS scored six quick points to take a 10-9 lead. The game was nip and tuck until SJS made four straight field goals, three by Saffold, midway through the first half. This gave the Spartans a 25-19 lead.

It took Idaho almost four minutes to score its first basket in the second half. By that time, SJS had opened up a 12 point margin.

The Spartans held a 16 point lead three times in the second half. The Vandals tallied eight straight points late in the game to trim their final loss margin.

In a preliminary game, Don McConnell and Keith Erickson tallied 15 points apiece to lead the SJS Frosh to a 63-62 win over Cal State's (Hayward) JV's.

Footballers Meet

A varsity football meeting will be held at 4 p.m. today in MG-201.

The Spartan footballers will select a 1964 all-opponent team.

Grid Schedule Through 1970 Revealed

SJS' football schedules through 1970 will include such new additions as University of California, Arizona, New Mexico, Brigham Young, Texas Western and Utah State.

All Cal and Stanford games will be played in the latter schools' stadiums since Spartan Stadium doesn't have the facilities to hold anticipated large crowds.

The 1968, '69 and '70 schedules each have one open date to fill. Following are the slates the Spartan footballers will face through 1970 (Home games indicated by asterisk):

1965: Stanford, Idaho, Utah State*, Brigham Young, Arizona State*, Arizona, New Mexico, UOP*, Montana State*, Fresno State.

1966: Stanford, BYU*, Oregon, Cal, San Diego State*, Texas Western, UOP, Idaho*, Utah State, Fresno State*.

1967: Arizona State, Texas Western*, Stanford, San Diego State, New Mexico*, UOP, Wyoming*, Cal, Fresno State, BYU.

1968: Stanford, Cal, Texas Western*, New Mexico, UOP, Fresno State*, Washington State*, Arizona State, Brigham Young*.

1969: Stanford, Utah, Oregon, Arizona State*, New Mexico*, BYU, Cal, UOP*, Texas Western.

1970: Stanford, Arizona, BYU*, New Mexico, Texas Western*, Utah*, Arizona State, Cal, UOP.

Dommeyer's upset win, along with victories by Spartans Roy Kasumoto and Loren Miller in the 130 lb. and 147 lb. weight divisions respectively, was responsible for the Spartans' win in the tournament. Spartans Ted Kaphengst and Art Beatty captured second places, and Dave Cole was third.

Spartan Coach Hugh Mumby said Van Tugh's second place finish was one of the highlights of the Spartababes' performance in the Northern California Tournament. No score was kept in the freshman division, but the Spartababes captured nine places, and certainly would have been among the leaders. Spartababe winners were Vaughn Imada, 115 lb.; Walt Armijo, 191; and Gabe Gregory, 191.

New Scholarships Presented Job Interviews

Scholarships from Chrysler, Ford and General Motors companies, amounting to $7,500 will be distributed next semester by the Industrial Design Program, Dr. Wayne Champion, industrial design department head, announces.

Awards of $10,000 from Chrysler, $3,000 from Ford, and $2,000 from General Motors were presented to the program. Half of this money will be used for support of the program while the other half will be distributed for scholarships according to the student's need.

Industrial design majors with upper division standing who are interested in the scholarships may contact Dr. Champion in IA229. Deadline for applications is Jan. 15, 1965.

TOMORROW:

Bank of America: liberal arts and business administration majors for management training in general branch banking, trust banking and international banking—citizenship required, military preferred and males only.

SJS Journalists Attend Confab

Bill Soliday, president of SJS' undergraduate chapter of Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalism society, and James Dume, assistant professor of journalism and society advisor, returned Saturday night from the 55th Anniversary Convention of Sigma Delta Chi in Kansas City, Mo.

Three students from SJS Department of Journalism were awarded first place at the convention for their radio documentary tape on late President John F. Kennedy.

More than 500 journalists attended the four day session, Prof. Dume said.

Harlan Cleveland, assistant secretary of state, and Dan Rather, CBS White House correspondent, were among notable speakers.

YR's To Present GOP Film Tonight

The controversial film "Choice" will be shown tonight at 8 in Concert Hall by the SJS Young Republicans.

The 30-minute GOP campaign film is intended to demonstrate the decline of morality in the U.S. It was scheduled for television during the recent presidential campaign but a cry of protest from the Democrats prompted Barry Goldwater to order it withheld from television.

A 50-cent donation will be requested at the door before the performance.

Masses Held Today

Roman Catholic students can attend special masses today for the Feast of the Immaculate Conception at the Catholic Women's Center, 195 E. San Fernando St., 9:35 a.m., 11:45 a.m. and 4 p.m.

Absolute Justice

We all believe in fair play and hope to see the right man win, but our human courts and institutions seem to have flaws and loopholes. Sometimes the wrong man is punished and the bad guy is set free. But in God's system of justice, perfection is the by-word and corruption unknown. A proper perspective of the absolute justice of God and His laws will show that no one can live up to such flawless standards without the power of Jesus Christ. Thus it is vitally important to set one's life straight with God by receiving the pardon and release from condemnation which Jesus Christ offers and to live thereafter in dependence on His resurrection strength.

Rest assured, God never fails, truth and justice do prevail in the long run according to a holy standard which measures all men by comparing them to Jesus Christ! In the Second Chapter of Romans we read:

"Do you think that God will judge and condemn others (for sinful deeds) and overlook you when you do them, too? Don't you realize how patient He is being with you? Or don't you care? Can't you see that He has been waiting all this time without punishing you to give you time to turn from your sin? His kindness is meant to lead you to repentance. But no, you won't listen; and so you are saving up terrible punishment for yourselves because of your stubborn hardness of heart, for there is going to come a day of wrath when God will be the honest judge of all. He will give eternal life to those who patiently do the will of God, seeking for glory and honor and eternal life. But He will terribly punish those who fight against the truth and walk in evil ways, for God's anger will be poured out upon them. There will be sorrow and suffering for Jews and Gentiles alike who keep on sinning. But there will be glory and honor and peace from God for all who obey Him, whether they are Jews or Gentiles, for God treats everyone the same. He will punish sin, wherever it is found. He will punish the heathen when they sin even though they never had God's written laws, for down in their heart they know they were wrong. God's laws are written within them; their own conscience accuses them, or sometimes excuses them. And God will punish the Jews for sinning because they have His written laws but don't obey them. They know what is right but don't do it. After all, salvation is not given to those who know what to do unless they do it."

"The day will surely come when at God's command Jesus Christ will judge the secret lives of everyone, their inmost thoughts and motives; this is all part of God's great plan which I have already told you about..." (Romans 2:3-16 Living Letters).
